President Nixon Blasted By Critics Nixon 'Lost His Senses' On War, Saxbe Charges

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Declaring that President Nixon "appears to have lost his senses," U.S. Sen. William B. Saxbe of Ohio has renounced his support of Nixon's Vietnam War policies.

Saxbe told Cleveland Plain Dealer reporter Robert J. Havel he now will support antiwar efforts in Congress because of the renewed bombing.

Saxbe, a Republican and a member of the Senate Armed Services Committee, has supported Nixon's handling of the war for the past four years.

But he said in the interview published today the President's bombing order exhibited "arrogance and irresponsibility."

Saxbe was irked because, he said, no effort was made by the White House to get in touch with him after the renewed heavy bombing started Dec. 18.

"I have never been more than five minutes away from a phone," he said, "but I never got a call, and so far as I know neither did any other member of the committee."

"He (the President) is going to have all kinds of trouble. He has asked no support, and he'll not get it."

Saxbe said, "I have followed President Nixon through all his convolutions and specious arguments, but he appears to have lost his senses on this," Saxbe said.

The senator said he supported bombing and other military actions in the past because of invasion threats from North Vietnam and because U.S. ground troops were imperiled.

That is no longer the case, he said, adding: "I've been through the pea patch for the last time."

Saxbe said Nixon "is doing what General Curtis LeMay advocated back in 1968. LeMay, running as the American Independent Party's vice presidential candidate, had advocated bombing North Vietnam "back to the Stone Age."

Saxbe said the U.S. Air Force is suffering "punishing losses" at the hands of the Communists. The U.S. Command reported Thursday 14 B52s have been lost in the raids. The senator favors replacing the B52 with the B1 bomber, but he said:

"I want a new bomber, but I don't want to lose all the old bombers, and I don't want to lose them when they're full of men."

House Opposes Bombing

WASHINGTON (AP) — A national campaign to mobilize public opposition to the bombing of Vietnam was urged today by 18 House Democrats.

They sent a letter to party Chairman Robert Strauss asking him to convene a special session of the Democratic National Committee to organize the campaign.

The group also wants the House Democratic caucus to go on record against the bombing and in favor of a peace treaty between the United States and North Vietnam at its meeting Tuesday before the opening of the new Congress.

In another letter, to Speaker Carl Albert, the House members urged him to support their effort in the caucus.

Albert told a newsman Wednesday he favored postponing any antiwar action by Congress until it has had a chance to hear administration leaders explain the reasons for the breakdown of peace negotiations and the renewed heavy bombing of North Vietnam.

Albert's comment has stirred strong opposition among antiwar Democrats. Some of them are threatening to vote against him when he seeks renomination as speaker at the Jan. 2 caucus. Albert is being opposed by Rep. John Conyers Jr., D-Mich.

A number of antiwar resolutions are being prepared for presentation to the caucus, ranging from expressions of disapproval of President Nixon's policies to demands that Congress cut off U.S. funds for the war.

However, sponsors of the resolutions face a parliamentary snag in trying to bring them up at Tuesday's meeting.

The caucus is being held for the primary purpose of electing party officers and adopting rules for the 93d Congress, which starts Wednesday.

Several proposed rules changes and a controversy over a plan to make the office of Democratic whip elective, rather than appointive, could cause time-consuming debate and prevent action on any other matters.

Only one day has been set aside for the opening caucus, but plans are being made for another meeting, probably in about two weeks, to deal with the war and reform issues.

In their letter to Strauss, the 18 House Democrats also asked him to support the end-the-war fight in the caucus. They noted that the Democratic platform calls for enlarging the role of Congress in setting the war policy.

Two Arrested, Third Is Planned, In Four Burglary Investigations

Pickaway County Sheriff Dwight Radcliff and Deputy Don Thompson ended 72 hours' extensive investigation of four northern Pickaway County burglaries with the arrest of two men and pending arrest of a third.

Sheriff Radcliff reported that Bob Schaffner, 44, Columbus, was arrested by Columbus police on one count of a convicted felon with a weapon charge and a count of receiving stolen property.

Schaffner was owner-operator of Groveport's Pit Shop store, where the HENRY Walters, who was proclaimed the Circleville postmaster in Thursday's Roundtown, has a slightly different vocation and a place of business located half a block farther east on Mound St. . . . We hope Rev. Walters won't mind being confused for a day with Charles Walters, the actual head man at the local postal facility.

VISITORS to A. W. Marion State Park will note that the Lake has been drawndown approximately 10 feet . . . The drawdown was necessary to allow for the repair of a gas line which traverses a southern bay area of the lake . . .

The lake will be refilled shortly after the necessary repairs have been completed. It is anticipated that the repairs will be made with the lake refill date being January 1, 1973. Until the Lake has been completely refilled and the surface area stabilized, ice skaters and ice fishermen should be extremely cautious when venturing onto Hargus Lake.

Pickaway County lawmen discovered motorcycles that were taken from the county before Christmas.

Further investigation led to the arrest of Kenneth Lee Ohrt, 19, Route 1, Lockbourne, who furnished the department with a three page verbal statement saying that he and another 19-year-old youth committed the burglaries and then sold the merchandise to Schaffner.

The third youth is expected to be arrested Friday night.

Schaffner was placed under $40,000 bond in Franklin County and Ohrt was placed under $4,000 bond following a preliminary hearing in Circleville Municipal Court Friday morning. He is charged with grand larceny and breaking and entering.

The Sheriff disclosed that the merchandise was taken from Bob's Hardware Store, Ashville, Wayside Grocery, and homes of Mrs. Charles Miller and Owen Patterson.

The pair got $974.69 in radios and guns in the hardware store, $534 in watches and cigarettes from the grocery, a mini bike and go cart valued at $324.71 from the Miller home and a motorcycle valued at $369 from the Patterson home.

4 Planes Lost In Air Attacks

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command today announced the loss of four more planes, including another B52, and 12 more fliers as the air blitz against the Hanoi-Haiphong area continued.

The Command's announcement raised acknowledged American losses in the air attack to 27 aircraft and 93 airmen missing, killed or captured in less than two weeks. Fifteen of the downed planes were eight-jet B52s, America's largest warplane.

Radio Hanoi claimed two B52 were shot down shortly after a large flight of Stratofortresses began a mass bombing attack on Hanoi at 10 p.m. Thursday.

Radio Hanoi today identified 10 more captured American fliers and said they were shown to the press in Hanoi Thursday. It said six were B52 crewmen and the other four flew F4 Phantom fighter-bombers.

The Command maintained its blackout on other information concerning the raids and also refused to say whether there would be a repetition for New Year's of the 36-hour Christmas halt in air operations against North Vietnam.

The Viet Cong has declared a 24-hour cease-fire in South Vietnam beginning Sunday, but there has been no such announcement from the U.S. or South Vietnamese commands.

The Command issued a special communique Wednesday giving its version of targets hit and damage caused during the first week of the aerial campaign, but it has given no details on the raids this week. More than 1,400 strikes were flown by fighter-bombers and B52 heavy bombers during the first week, the command said.

OFBF Official, Harsha Rip Loss Of Farm Loans

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — An Ohio farm official took issue Thursday with the Nixon administration's claim that releasing more emergency loan funds to weather-plagued farmers would be inflationary.

The Federal Office of Budget and Management announced this week that $100 million of the $135 million budgeted for emergency loans in 1973 had been spent or allocated, and that the remaining funds had been frozen.

"It's ridiculous to call the release of loan money inflationary when the government knows it's going to get the money back," said C. William Swank, executive director of the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation.

Swank estimates the state's farmers could lose as much as $250 million as a result of poor harvests.

"It's dropping bombs on people, that's inflationary, and sinking ships and shooting down airplanes...it's doing things that don't do any good for people."

In a press conference to discuss the loan freeze, Swank and OFBF trustees president Leonard Schnell said they will contact Ohio's congressmen and U.S. senators about assistance in procuring other federal aid for farmers.

"We cannot understand the government turning its back on farmers in the hour of their greatest need," said Schnell.

He would not estimate how many farmers needed loans to make it through to next season, but he said the numbers "should be relatively few" in view of tough federal guidelines to receive the aid.

NIXONS PAY TRIBUTE — President Richard Nixon and wife, Pat, place a wreath at the casket bearing the body of former President Harry Truman who was buried Thursday. At the same time, Nixon was being lashed by his contemporaries on a variety of issues including his Vietnam War policy.

"Most of our farmers will be able to get private loans and make do until next year. But those who qualify for the loans need the money, and they need it badly," he said.

Without the loans, Schnell said some younger farmers who do not have cash reserves will be put out of business.

Seventy-four Ohio counties have been recommended at the state level for the federal loans, but even if they receive federal approval, there is no money available to fill loan requests, Swank pointed out.

Agriculture officials have estimated that as much as 30 per cent of Ohio's grain crop is still unharvested because of poor weather conditions.

Moisture content of the grain has further decreased its market value, and grain drying has been hampered by a shortage of propane gas for drying machines.

Some 800 counties nationwide have applied for the emergency loan status, requiring an estimated $750 million in additional loan funds.

The following telegram was sent to President Richard Nixon Friday morning by William Harsha, Representative to Congress.

Richard Nixon, I humbly suggest you submit your official at OMB to a sanity test. Why in heavens name would they curtail an emergency program in the middle of an emergency?

To curtail an emergency disability farm loan program in the middle of a disaster and before many farmers even know the totality of their losses is an unconscionable action.

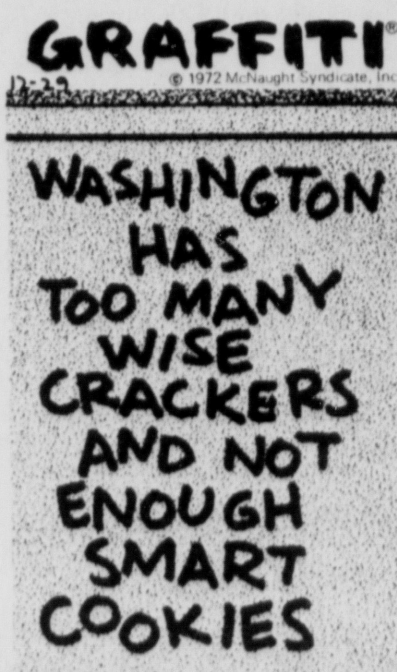

The very nature and title of the program, Emergency Disability Loans, indicates that there is a condition against which preparation cannot be made; a situation over which they have no control, and to cut off that assistance is to abandon the farmer in his hour of dire need.

The American people demand an end to this type of bureaucratic bungle.

1972 — It Was Quite A Year

JANUARY

Dick Tootle was re-elected as chairman of the Pickaway County Board of Commissioners at the annual organizational meeting. The commissioners reappointed Geneva K. Brink as clerk and they outlined their major goals for the 1972 year.

The new year had its first official flood with water overflowing the Scioto River bank. The 10.55 feet of water was just enough to sog the surrounding land.

Scott Fouts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dannie Fouts, was the first baby born at Berger Hospital in 1972. He arrived at 3:15 p.m. New Years Day and weighed in at 6 pounds 9 1/2 ounces.

The Red Cross Bloodmobile collected 124 pints of blood on its first visit of the year. The 124 pints were just one short of the standard 125 pint quota. Among the top donors in Pickaway County were Robert Wilson, Edgar Davis, Robert Franklin, Bennie Huffer, Ronald List, Charles Brackett, and Charles Nelson.

Mayor Frank Barnhill named Ed Ebert and Atwood Jones to the posts of safety and service directors respectively. They were the first appointments announced by the new mayor.

Classes were continued at Westfall High School despite a bomb threat phoned to the school's superintendent Donald Shearer. Deputy Warren Straley was dispatched to the scene and after an intensive search could find nothing. Sheriff Dwight Radcliff believed the threat to be only malicious in nature.

Fire struck a furnace-storage room on the extreme west side of the Westfall High School gymnasium. Actual fire damage was confined to the 30-foot by 8-foot room, although a considerable amount of smoke filled the adjacent gym and did some damage to its dome roof. Home basketball games scheduled for the Mustangs were moved to other gyms and cancelled.

Barry Fisher bowled the second 300-game in league play ever recorded at local lanes. It was the first perfect game for Fisher who had been bowling for 20 years. The game was bowled at Circle-D lanes. Two years prior to Fishers's game, Randy Arledge had a perfect score at Prairie Lanes.

Ptl. V. M. Ralston was chosen "Patrolman of the Year" at the Circleville Post of the Ohio State Highway Patrol. The award was presented to Ptl. Ralston in recognition of his outstanding service during 1971. Ralston joined the Circleville post in 1962 and won the award on basis of enthusiasm, criminal investigation, enforcement actions, and interpersonal relations.

FEBRUARY

A federal grant in the amount of $28,039 was approved for Pickaway County Commissioners to conduct a feasibility study of a county-city justice complex. The grant was awarded by Dr. David C. Sweet, director of the Ohio Department of Development, under the Omnibus Crime Control Act.

Sgt. Leroy Hawks celebrated his 20th year as a Circleville law enforcer. Hawks, born and raised in Circleville, joined the Circleville force Feb. 1, 1952 and has served under three police chiefs: William McCrady, Elmer Merriman, and current chief, Robert Temple. He was promoted to sergeant in 1956 and supervises the post's 7 a.m. to 3 p.m. day shift.

Ernest (Bud) Enoch, Route 1, was chosen as Pickaway County's most outstanding young farmer in 1971. Enoch was honored at the annual Circleville Jaycees Distinguished Service Awards Banquet at the 4-H and Grange Building. Enoch lives with his wife Margaret, daughter Kim and son Ernie.

Rain changing to snow as the temperature dropped to zero gave Pickaway County its first snow of the year. Hard-packed ice and swirling snow drifts closed many secondary roads in the southeastern portion of the county making driving conditions hazardous, and closing some schools.

Billy G. Toney, 34, principal of the Ashville Junior High, was named the Outstanding Young Educator of Pickaway County for 1971 by the Circleville Jaycees. Toney began his teaching career in 1967 as a drafting instructor at Mohawk High School in Columbus. He taught graduate school at Wayne State University and then

Markets

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market suddenly came to life today, the last trading day of the year.

The noon Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks was up 10.68 to 1018.36. Advances held a 889 to 435 lead over declines on the New York Stock Exchange, with 1,696 issues changing hands in heavy trading.

The first hour's volume of 7.71 million shares was the fifth largest on record. Analysts said that the market seemed to be resuming the bullish tone that sent the Dow Jones industrials up some 110 points from mid-October to mid-December, before the rupture of the Viet Nam peace talks.

The rally was unexpected, even though the Dow had made mild gains in the last three sessions, following four previous days of severe declines. Some analysts said hints the Price Commission would ease profit ceiling guidelines was helping fuel the advance.

The New York Stock Exchange Index of some 1,400 common stocks was up 0.44 to 64.29. But on the American Stock Exchange, advances held only a slender lead over declines, and the price-change index was up 0.06 to 26.24.

Experts Believe Managua Could Be Rebuilt Safely

MANAGUA, Nicaragua (AP) — Experts from the United States began a study today of the feasibility of rebuilding earthquake-shattered Managua on its present site.

Teams of geologists and seismologists arrived from the United States Wednesday as specialists from Mexico and Venezuela announced preliminary findings.

Demolition crews were still dynamiting and bulldozing in the downtown area next to Lake Managua, clearing it of damaged structures and the rubble of buildings and homes that were flattened in seconds by the severe quake early Saturday. An estimated 2,000-5,000 persons were killed and 20,000 seriously injured.

Although Managua has been hit twice in 40 years by murderous earthquakes, a group of Mexican experts led by Dr. Cinna Lomnitz reported to Nicaraguan authorities that there was no need to relocate their capital city.

"Most of the city is located on hard volcanic stuff — solid stuff," said Lomnitz, director of the Department of Seismology at the University of Mexico. "Its subsoil is sounder than that of Mexico City, for instance."

He said the damage was so great because the epicenter of the quake was right underneath the city.

"It was like a direct hit by a bomb," he explained.

The Mexican experts suggested that the damaged area be turned into a park or "green zone."

An estimated 15,000 persons were still roaming the city center despite its designation as an "emergency" or "contaminated" area and orders to evacuate it. Shooting was heard Thursday as national guard patrols tried to drive off looters, but it appeared that mostly they were shooting over their heads. Unofficial reports said only 32 persons had been treated for bullet wounds since Saturday. There were rumors of looters being killed, but no confirmed reports.

Nixon Made Bundle On Sale Of Land

KEY BISCAIYNE, Fla. (AP) — A Miami attorney representing President Nixon said today he "couldn't verify one way or the other" a report that Nixon made $100,000 profit on the sale of two canal-front lots near his Florida home.

Thomas H. Wakefield, a lawyer who has represented Nixon in previous land dealings on the booming tropical island, said the sale price was $150,000.

The Miami Herald reported in today's editions that Nixon bought the property in 1967 and 1971, paying $30,000 for one piece and $23,100 for a second.

Wakefield said he had "no way of knowing" if the Herald figures, based on calculations of documentary tax stamps, was accurate.

In Washington, there was no immediate comment from the White House.

Wakefield said the property was sold to Yonkers, N.Y., attorney William E. Griffin Jr., a personal acquaintance of the President's.

Griffin reportedly has been considering building a home on the land located near the entrance to Cape Florida State Park. Nixon's closely guarded villa is about 12 blocks to the northwest.

Griffin said he was undecided what to do with the property, adding, "We may build a permanent residence there."

Wakefield and Nixon's close friend, C. G. "Bebe" Rebozo, witnessed sale papers Wakefield said were signed by the President "sometime last week."

The attorney filed the sales document in Dade County Circuit Court Thursday making the transaction final.

Nixon bought the two parcels of land from a company headed by Donald Berg, a developer who built homes in the Cape Florida section of the island, the Herald reported.

MY MINUTE MESSAGE

ARE WE PREPARED TO MEET OUR GOD? Meet Him we must, and we are not prepared unless we have personally made preparation for that momentous event which could take place at any hour. Tens of thousands will this day go out to meet God, and you and I might be in that number. Don't be fooled to think that adequate preparation has been made simply because your parents were, or are, church members, because you were baptized, confirmed, have joined the church, loyal to your religion, or trying to do the best you can. Jesus was speaking to a notable churchman, and a church ruler at that, when He said, "Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God." Again: "Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again." (John 3:3,7) A born again person is a new creature, with the old life gone, and all things made new." (See 2 Corinthians 5:17). Don't be hoodwinked; believe not man who believes not the plain truth of God, neither the thoughts of our own wicked heart: believe the Bible, for it is by this we shall all be judged. George W. Truett, the noted Baptist preacher of other years, had this to say: "Salvation is by a person. It is not by a church. It is not by an ordinance, nor by a sacrament, nor by a creed, nor by a ceremony, nor by a form, however beautiful; nor by a man, however clever and pretentious. Salvation is by a person, and that person is none other than the Divine Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Whosoever receives Him to be His Saviour, is saved by Him. Whosoever turns away from Him does not have spiritual life, but spiritual death." "PREPARE TO MEET THY GOD." (Amos 4:12). The only safe time is now.

SETS RECORD—Pickaway County Deputy Bob Hoover inspects damage to a 1973 model car driven by Judith Parsons, 27, Kingston, which was extensively damaged Thursday in Whisler. The car was involved in a minor accident, swerved out of control and hit a pickup truck head-on. The car had 41 miles on its odometer. The accident marked the 105th of the month, tying August's record.

Two injury accidents and two minor property damage crashes Thursday raised December's accident total to 108, according to the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department, the most accidents ever investigated in a single month. The previous high was 105 in August, 1972.

Two people were injured in a bazaar three vehicle accident in Whisler 1:05 p.m. Thursday.

A passenger in her car, 66-year-old Onely Parsons, of the same address, was treated for chest injuries, multiple abrasions to her forehead and a large blood clot on her head.

According to the accident report compiled by Sheriff's Deputies Bob Hoover and Earl Kuhn, Robert Irwin, 31, Route 2, Kingston, driving a Chillicothe Telephone Co. van, pulled from Jackson Rd. onto the Hayesville-Adelphi Rd. into the path of the Parson vehicle.

The front of the truck hit the left rear of the car and caused it to swerve out of control. The car went left of center and hit a parked pickup truck headon. The truck is owned by Bernard Adams, Columbus.

Irwin was charged with a right of way violation.

Vicki A. Ayers, 20, Route 4, was treated for lacerations, abrasions and multiple contusions after she lost control of her car on the E. Ringgold Southern Rd. 7:40 p.m. Thursday and flew through the air into Hominey Creek.

Deputies Phil Brown and Vaughn Herdman said she was driving north on the road when she swerved to the left to miss a dog. The car continued out of control for 132 feet, left the road for 50 feet and hit a fence owned by Oakley Leist, Route 1, Stoutsville.

The car jumped over a bridge culvert, flew through the air 50 feet and landed on the north bank of the creek.

Markets

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market suddenly came to life today, the last trading day of the year.

The noon Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks was up 10.68 to 1018.36. Advances held a 889 to 435 lead over declines on the New York Stock Exchange, with 1,696 issues changing hands in heavy trading.

The first hour's volume of 7.71 million shares was the fifth largest on record. Analysts said that the market seemed to be resuming the bullish tone that sent the Dow Jones industrials up some 110 points from mid-October to mid-December, before the rupture of the Viet Nam peace talks.

The rally was unexpected, even though the Dow had made mild gains in the last three sessions, following four previous days of severe declines. Some analysts said hints the Price Commission would ease profit ceiling guidelines was helping fuel the advance.

The New York Stock Exchange Index of some 1,400 common stocks was up 0.44 to 64.29. But on the American Stock Exchange, advances held only a slender lead over declines, and the price-change index was up 0.06 to 26.24.

It is not by an ordinance, nor by a sacrament, nor by a creed, nor by a ceremony, nor by a form, however beautiful; nor by a man, however clever and pretentious. Salvation is by a person, and that Person is none other than the Divine Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Whosoever receives Him to be His Saviour, is saved by Him. Whosoever turns away from Him does not have spiritual life, but spiritual death." "PREPARE TO MEET THY GOD." (Amos 4:12). The only safe time is now.

Auto Purchases During 1972 Reach Record

DETROIT (AP) — New car buyers bought U.S.-built and foreign cars at a record pace in 1972, with indications the final tally would exceed 10.5 million vehicles — a new sales mark, and 300,000 above the record set last year.

The cars were changed little in appearance as the car builders — both foreign and domestic — had to spend much of their new model money meeting federal safety and emissions requirements rather than make drastic styling revisions.

The presence of the federal government was felt in practically every facet of the auto business in Detroit, from prices to safety items.

Auto buyers got some tax relief, as the 7 per cent federal excise tax on new cars was eliminated in December 1971 and the comparable tax on imports was chopped down, too.

When the auto firms brought their 1973 models to the market place, they did not carry immediately the fairly large price hikes which have become part of new model operations in recent years.

Instead, the auto firms had to go before the federal Price Commission and present their reasons why any price hikes should be granted. All four U.S. companies agreed they needed to be given price relief for safety and emissions items added to the cars — particularly energy-absorbing bumper systems — in line with federal directives.

Ford, for example, asked for a 2.78 per cent price increase and got 1.9 per cent, or $62 per car, from the Price Commission ruling.

Demand for new cars remained high through the year, with sales totals through the first 11 months adding up to 10,039,625 cars. Of these, 8.6 million were domestic products; about 1.4 million were imports.

Volkswagen, the Germanbuilt compact, remained the big seller in the import field for '72 although its sales total slipped somewhat in the face of tough competition from the Japanese-built Toyota, Datsun and Mazda lines.

Mazda was the first equipped with a Wankel rotary engine to sell in any volume on the U.S. market, taking over 15,000 orders.

Wankel remained the big word in auto industry research as General Motors gave indications it would have some Wankel-powered cars by 1975. Other auto companies also did work on the possibilities of the engine, which operates on a rotary basis rather than on a reciprocating piston basis.

While U.S. car makers sold vehicles at a record rate, their production for the year did not reach a record, mainly because of a series of short strikes aimed mainly at General Motors plants.

One estimate was that GM lost over 300,000 cars from planned production schedules, with Ford and Chrysler having lesser labor problems and smaller production losses.

Estimates in early December were that the U.S. output would wind up at about 8,750,000 cars — third-highest total in auto industry history as it ran behind 1969's 8.8 million and the record year of 1965, 9.3 million.

The United Auto Workers and the auto firms disagreed over causes of the walkouts. The UAW blamed them on assembly line speedups and work force reductions.

GM Board Chairman Richard C. Gertsonberg countered that GM's 400,000 hourly paid workers average $12,466 a year before taxes. He said he was concerned about the future trends of labor costs and what they could mean to new car prices.

Auto industry leaders were unhappy about the number of trips they had made to Washington to talk with federal officials about a wide range of auto problems, ranging from prices to safety. But there seemed to be more acceptance of the government's role.

"I think there is a great deal of understanding on the part of people down there," said Thomas A. Murphy, a GM vice president. He added there appeared to be a growing realization on the part of Washington officials that all things could not be done virtually on demand by the government.

A decision late in the year by the 6th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals at Cincinnati sidelined one of the auto industry's biggest immediate problems — what to do to meet a federal safety standard requiring installation of airbag-type safety devices by Aug. 15, 1975.

The court granted the auto industry's request for an indefinite stay of the order, to give it time to develop such safety devices.

But the industry still was under government orders to come up with a cleaner engine by 1975 model time, and that caused some burning of midnight oil at auto industry laboratories where experimental work has to be carried out two to three years before a car reaches the public.

The big question in the entire auto industry picture was how well sales were going, and the answer was "real good."

Henry Ford II, board chairman of Ford Motor Co., was one of the earliest and most accurate predictors of how business would be in 1972. He said last December the total would be 10.5 million cars, including imports.

He looked in his crystal ball again this December and came up with a new goal — again a new high — of 11 million cars in 1973.

A Page Of Opinion

Make It Non-Alcoholic

If you plan to get behind the wheel of a car during the holiday season, that traditional cup of Christmas cheer ought to be non-alcoholic. One safety organization reports that more than half of all the drivers involved in fatal accidents in past Christmas seasons had been drinking.

Safety experts already are more than usually gloomy because Americans are certain to establish in 1972 a new record for road deaths. The figure may be just under 60,000. Almost two million will be injured seriously enough this year to be disabled beyond the day of the accident.

If it isn't realistic to expect people to stop drinking at parties, they should turn to "pool driving" in which one member of a neighborhood or family group going to a party by car be designated the group's driver — and teetotaler. The system is widely encouraged in Sweden, where a drinking driver faces an automatic jail sentence.

Police in Sweden will even drive the drinker and his car home, for a fee.

Couple Faces Neglect Charges In Tot's Death

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — A Cincinnati teen-ager and his wife have been charged with juvenile delinquency — child neglect — in the death of one of their 2-month-old twins Dec. 17.

The charge was filed Wednesday against Richard Naegele, 17, and his wife, Debbie, 16, after the Hamilton County coroner ruled the death of Shane Naegele a homicide.

The coroner said death was caused by a type of pneumonia brought on by malnutrition and emaciation.

Authorities said that Shawn Naegele, 2 months old, was being treated at Children's Hospital here for undernourishment. Shawn was listed in satisfactory condition.

Sea Creatures Charity

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

Food for thought: when it comes to the protection of whales, seals, dolphins, the Atlantic salmon and other endangered sea creatures, a nation has to be both capitalist and Christian to go for it. I don't know what this proves, but it is an accurate description of the fact.

The capitalist and Christian United States proposed a ten-year moratorium on whaling at the 14-nation London meeting of the International Whaling Commission last June. This was in line with what had been proposed at the United Nations Conference on the Human Environment in Stockholm — a conference, incidentally, boycotted by the Russians on the rather specious ground that East Germany had been denied full participation in ecological deliberations. When it came to a vote on the U.S. proposition, Britain, Argentina, and Mexico, capitalist and Christian countries for the most part, upheld the conservationist view. Several nations abstained. The leaders of the opposition happened to be Japan and the Soviet Union, the two nations whose "factory" ships take more than 80 per cent of the annual whale catch. Japan is capitalist but not Christian. Soviet Russia grudgingly permits the Eastern Orthodox version of Christianity, but is certainly not capitalist.

Though it won't do to make too much of this, a moralist might deduce that it takes a people who are willing to temper competition with charity to spare some feelings for the brute creation.

Without more than token help from the Russians and the Japanese, who grudgingly agreed to reduced quotas on fin, sei and sperm whale catches in addition to accepting a ban on very rare species such as the practically nonexistent blue whale, the U.S. has gone the whole way in this matter of protecting sea mammals. By our new Marine Mammal Protection Act we have set up a Marine Mammal Commission to keep Americans from killing whales, porpoises, seals, walrus, manatees, and other air-breathing aquatic creatures. Save where old treaties intervene, the Mammal Protection Act prohibits the incursion of non-American, mamal, hunting fishermen into U.S. waters. This doesn't protect the fur seal, which the Japanese and others are permitted by treaty to hunt off the Alaskan coast.

Since it is a practical impossibility to get all nations to accept a moratorium to protect endangered species, the outlook for the whales remains dim. The salmon are doing better, thanks, in part, to curbing applying to the Atlantic and to spawning rivers in New Brunswick and Quebec. But if the salmon are really to be saved, it will probably be due to the capitalist enterprise of Jon Lindbergh, the son of the famous aviator-turned-ecologist, Charles Lindbergh. "Jon Lindbergh salmon" have been appearing on the bill of fare at clubs such as the Chevy Chase in the Washington, D.C., area and the Harvard Club in New York City.

The "Lindbergh salmon" is being marketed by an organization called Domsea Farms, Inc., a subsidiary of Union Carbide. John Lindbergh sold his overseas projects some time ago as Ocean Systems, Inc., to Union Carbide, and went along with OSI in a supervisory capacity. The Domsea Farms offshoot of OSI has been raising salmon in freshwater ponds under controlled heating conditions and transferring them to netted pens in Puget Sound salt water. It takes a year to raise a coho salmon to marketable size on the Lindbergh "farm."

If the Lindbergh experiment, which has been carried out in conjunction with scientists, succeeds, it will take the pressure off the seagoing salmon. Too bad that Domsea Farms can't hit upon a way of breeding whales for the market.

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

I perspire a great deal and am embarrassed by the way the sweat pours off me.

This happens not only in hot weather, but in cold weather, too.

Is there any new treatment available?

Mr. N.V., Mont.

Dear Mr. V.:

I assume that all possible physical causes for your condition have been thoroughly studied. The disorder is known as "hyperhidrosis."

A great many drugs have been tried in an effort to reduce the excessive outpouring of sweat from the sweat glands of the body. Some of these have been successful. There is, however, no consistency, in all cases.

At the Cleveland Clinic in Ohio, a special type of operation known as "ganglionectomy" has been used with considerable success in carefully selected patients.

Physicians and surgeons in many parts of the country can perform this operation. There is no uniform agreement that this procedure is the total answer to excessive perspiration.

I search you columns for an answer to the canker sores that plague me.

They crop up in my mouth with no relationship to my diet or activity. They make me miserable.

Mrs. E. C., Ala.

According To Boyle

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — We have a different problem this New Year's.

Usually that is the day when everyone does a lot of soulsearching, and decides what to give up. Usually, if we are honest, we find much to give up.

This year, inflation and the course of events already have taken from us more than we feel we can afford to lose. The problem is to find something we can hold on to with both hands. However, despite the uneasy feeling I have that I am being robbed in some mysterious way — a feeling I suppose you have, too — I find there are still left to me a few things I might be better off without. They are mostly some picayune faults and bad habits — things we all have in plentiful supply.

So help me Hannah, I hereby resolve in 1973 to:

—Quit having so many late dates with Phyllis Diller. They are only making her yawn and putting dark circles under her bright eyes.

—Offer fewer possible winning plays to the Green Bay Packers pro football team. They are only helping the other teams to victory.

—Go to night clubs only during matinees. Then I can get home at dusk instead of dawn.

—Stop reading the last pages of mystery novels first. This only leaves me more confused when I get around to reading the whole book.

—Compose no more puppy love poems while under the influence of martinis. They only make my cat sick when I read them to her.

—Write my congressman more short letters and fewer long telegrams.

—Make no phone calls of free advice except to people who are glad to take them collect.

—Quit asking the check girl at the Metropolitan Museum of Art, "What's a pretty girl like you doing in a joint like this?"

—Stop snarling to strangers who step on my toes in the subway, "What's the trouble with you anyway, Mac. Do you need four feet to walk on — or the whole floor?"

—Make no more last wills and testaments when I'm angry at youth and in which I leave all my money to

Dear Mrs. C.:

Anyone who has had a canker sore, or aphthous ulcer of the mouth, knows how painful and unpleasant it can be. These puzzling sores still remain one of the unanswered problems in medicine.

Injection of small amounts of smallpox vaccine was once tried. This was not effective.

The use of yogurt and lactobacillus pills seems to give some people relief, and perhaps more rapid healing.

Anesthetic applied to the ulcers bring temporary relief. Diet, once implicated as a cause, seems to have fallen by the wayside as an explanation.

A new form of treatment being tried with a fair amount of enthusiasm deserves some mention. Tetracycline, an antibiotic, is used in the following way: About 250 milligrams in a syrupy solution, is swished in the mouth for about five minutes, and then swallowed. This can be repeated about five times a day, if your doctor suggests it.

Apparently the pain is diminished and the duration of the painful sores is shortened. Unless one is allergic to this antibiotic, it most certainly is worth trying.

How often have you made a note to buy a kitchen fire extinguisher? How long have you forgotten to do it?

Lynn Meredith Reichelderfer, a senior at Circleville High School, and James Mitchell Harrah, a Logan Elm High School senior, were the winners of the BPO Elks youth leadership contest in Pickaway County.

T-Bone and sirloin steaks were selling for 89 cents a pound in local markets.

The congregation of Circleville First Methodist Church voted overwhelmingly in favor of a building and expansion program costing an estimated $153,000. The plans included a two-story addition on the lot occupied by the old parsonage with the entrance to be on Pickaway St.

City police reported a serene Christmas Day with only one phone call recorded on the log book.

Dick Welsh and his orchestra provided the music for the annual Mistletoe Ball at the Fairgrounds Coliseum.

Walter (Stag) Lewis was named World Champion Liar of 1962 by the Burlington Liars Club of Wisconsin, guardian of the annual competition. Lewis' winning tall tale was: "The weather was so dry that when my canary bird wanted a drink, I had to pull up the well and run it through a wringer."

AT BOOKS IN THE CHILDREN'S LIBRARY

The excitement of the holiday season is passing, and we are ready to settle down to the quiet restfulness of winter. Perhaps some colorful new books will help the young children fill their long winter evenings.

"On Your Mark, Get Set, Go!" is an amusing story about the first all-animal olympics. It is an easy-to-read book written in large print, and illustrated with simple, humorous drawings. Through the text and drawings Leonard Kessler teaches a lesson in training for olympics events, and good sportsmanship. Youthful sports fans should find it very interesting.

"Frog and Toad Together" by Arnold Lobel is also an easy-to-read book. It contains five different stories about the adventures of frog and toad as they share their problems, their dreams, and their possessions. These delightful frog and toad books show how important a good friendship can be.

"Centerman from Quebec" is a children's sports story about hockey. The hero of this book is Jean Nicol, a super hockey player who has to learn not to criticize his fellow teammates. The author of this book is Sheldon Ilowite, an ex-hockey coach. He was able to provide a lot of tips in this book that should help young players.

"Azeet, Paratrooper Dog" by General Motta Gur is about a German Shepherd who became a member of the Israel Army and served on border patrol duty in the Middle East. Azeet seems to be a super-canine who can perform wonderful acts of heroism in spite of dangerous or debilitating conditions. Dog lovers will grow to worship Azeet for her heroism and loyalty. This book is illustrated by Ron Dorfman.

"Mon Premier Livre de Chansons" est un livre neuf qui c'est e'crit en Francais. H'ele-ne Paire a illustre' ce livre. Il y aviat beaucoup de jolis dessins eclatants entre les chansons folklorique de la France. On a publi'e ce beaulivre par Le Librairie Larousse a Paris.

A new edition of the Golden Song Book, now in its twenty-second printing is now available. This book contains all the children's songs and games which have been favorites for many years. They have been selected and arranged by Katharine Tyler Wessels, and the book was illustrated by Gertrude Elliott.

Elementary schoolteachers will probably be interested in the new printing of "A Treasury of Games." It is an excellent collection of games, riddles, tricks, rhymes, and songs

Move Under Way To Save Porpoises

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Commerce Peter G. Peterson has announced a program designed to save porpoises from accidental deaths in the nets of the United States' tuna fleet.

Peterson said all tuna fishermen are encouraged to use Medina nets. In 1970 Harold Medina, a tunaboat captain, devised a panel to be incorporated in tuna seines, using smaller-mesh webbing which makes it more difficult for porpoises to become entangled.

Peterson also said a cooperative federal-industry program will be launched to teach tuna fishermen to use more efficient backing techniques to allow porpoises to escape over nets.

About half the nation's yellowfin tuna catch is taken by seeking out schools of porpoise, which travel in tight association with tuna.

Cleveland Trust Increases Rates

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Cleveland Trust Co., the largest bank in Cleveland, has increased its prime lending rate to 6 per cent.

The prime lending rate is the minimum rate charged to its biggest borrowers.

Other Cleveland banks are expected to follow suit. The boost in prime lending rates began Friday with the First National City Bank of New York. The nation's largest commercial bank, Bank of America, then followed suit.

Windshield Washer Fluid Still Impounded

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Some 1,651 gallons of ChinaTown Windshield Washer AntiFreeze seized from the discount-department store's three locations here cannot be returned to the company until the substance is properly labeled, a judge says.

Judge Timothy Hogan of U.S. District Court here ruled Wednesday that the fluid was misbranded. He said the fluid contains methyl alcohol which is poisonous and was not labeled as such. The fluid was confiscated Dec. 2.

MAGNETIC PERSON—Santa Claus drew the youngsters to him like a magnet at the Christmas party for employees' children of the local DuPont plant recently in the gymnasium of Logan Elm High School. Each child received a gift after a personal interview with the bewhiskered gentleman. Entertainment was provided by Ron and Mrs. Rattleby of Friendly Junction along with Chuck White and Leo the Clown, television personalities, for the 2,000 guests.

Christmas Program Given By Day School Children

Children of Ruth's Tiny Tot Day School, including preschool classes and the day care department, presented a Christmas program for their families and friends recently.

After recitations and songs Santa Claus made an appearance and presents were given to the children. During the party which followed, cookies made by the children, were served along with punch. The children also made and gave to their parents ceramic paper weights and molded hand prints of plaster of paris.

The Christmas tree was decorated by the children with ornaments they had made. Mrs. Marilyn Zwyer and Miss Cheree George assisted Mrs. George with the party and program attended by over 100 guests and students.

Children and adults sang "Silent Night" accompanied at the piano by Jim Salyers, who played for all the program music.

The children sang "God Bless America," "Santa Claus Is Coming To Town," "Away In A Manger," "Jolly Old St. Nicholas," "Up On The Housetop," "Jingle Bells," "Rudolph The Red Nosed Reindeer" and "We Wish You A Merry Christmas."

Singing were: Heather Blecha, Laura Eck, Tony Ritter, Jennifer Hall, Philip Plum, Brent Fetherolf, Lisa

Women Seeking Ideal Men

By VIVIAN BROWN

Women's Lib is not about to kill off that age-old search for "a big strong man who will take a girl away from it all." The hunt is still on as this letter indicates:

"Many months ago I read about a 26-year-old bachelor and the kind of wife he is seeking. But where do you find such a man? I've been looking ever since and haven't met a single eligible man who is older than 21. I am 22 and I don't want to be a career girl and live alone as my sister is doing. She can't get dates either, except with married men, and she doesn't want that . . ."

Interest in the 26-year-old bachelor's ideas got underway sometime ago when his "startling" ideas about marriage were discussed informally with a group of women and recorded by the press.

It intrigued many girls to visualize themselves as "that girl." I can wear his glass slipper," as one girl put it. And the Cinderella letters are still coming.

The bachelor had said he and his friends "didn't like the modern (girl) package. He was seeking a girl "happy she is a girl" . . . interested in a home . . . able to cook and enjoy it . . . cheerful and positive . . . a good sport . . . a team mate . . . a money watcher . . . one who would respect him and make him feel important. In return his wife could do pretty much what she wanted to do.

But a 22-year-old Tuscon girl was optimistic — "if there is such a man eligible, others might exist, so I'll keep looking." A Gaffney, S.C. student had found many, but she was pessimistic. Most of the bachelors she had met were dedicated to "seeing how far they could go with their dates." Her description of "an all MAN husband" is one who accepts responsibilities, is neat, understanding, willing to share her interests and ask her "to accompany him on business trips and dinner engagements . . ."

A 26-year-old Dallas girl applauded the idea, pointing out, she would like "to marry a guy who is willing to make a living for me so I can stay home and raise a family." A San Francisco girl confided, "it has been difficult to meet men who will do the cigar smoking and allow a woman to be feminine and a mother to his children." Another California girl confirmed " . . . if you've heard there is a shortage of bachelors in California, it is all too true. . . ."

Only two girls resented the bachelor's requirements. A 24-year-old Chicago girl insisted "the modern package in men isn't so great, either, so there" . . . although, she, too, would like to meet "an old-fashioned man."

But an Oceanside, L.I. woman wanted to know why a 26-year-old bachelor wanted to get married anyway. "Why doesn't he look in pet shops for a companion — dogs and cats can be feminine, enjoy a good home, and will drop everything to join in what he wants to do. They will make him feel important, and will be economical to keep."

"And if Buster wants a good cook," she added, "I would suggest he look in the classified ads under domestic help."

Some letters from men attempted to explain why the male sex continued to be elusive. A Grand Blanc, Mich. man, 27, agreed with the bachelor, but concludes that girls are "playing hard to get." He admits, paradoxically, "if a girl is easy to make a date with, most guys wouldn't think of marrying her. . . ."

A 43-year-old bachelor from Spartanburg, S.C. had his say, also. He provided a little insight into what one man thinks is wrong with today's girl. A lawyer, non-smoker, non-drinker, 6 ft. 2. tall with heavy wavy hair, a veteran, conservative dresser, he is interested in sports, drama, writing, magic, American Indian culture, pets, tree planting and reading. He has been told by friends that marriage is the one thing he needs "to be completely rounded," but he can't find the right girl.

"Girls are not dependable. They think nothing of breaking dates. . . they judge a man by the worth of his car rather than his character." He would gladly share his devotion, sincerity, honesty, money and property — "she would be queen, I would be king" — if he were to find the right girl. But it must work both ways.

Through the years he has found girls between the ages of 18 and 27 "the most difficult to get along with". Too spoiled. One 29-year-old girl accused him of "not understanding her." Another girl terminated their romance by writing him, "you are too kind to say so, but I think our personalities do not blend too well. . . ." He did share that view.

"I am completely for marriage but I think my high ideals have caused frustrations. If there are good girls around desiring to meet good men, I am encouraged . . ."

And that kind of puts the glass slipper on the other foot.

News Of Interest To Women

The Circleville Herald, Friday December 29, 1972

MAGNETIC PERSON—Santa Claus drew the youngsters to him like a magnet at the Christmas party for employees' children of the local DuPont plant recently in the gymnasium of Logan Elm High School. Each child received a gift after a personal interview with the bewhiskered gentleman. Entertainment was provided by Ron and Mrs. Rattleby of Friendly Junction along with Chuck White and Leo the Clown, television personalities, for the 2,000 guests.

Christmas Program Given By Day School Children

Children of Ruth's Tiny Tot Day School, including preschool classes and the day care department, presented a Christmas program for their families and friends recently.

After recitations and songs Santa Claus made an appearance and presents were given to the children.

During the party which followed, cookies made by the children, were served along with punch. The children also made and gave to their parents ceramic paper weights and molded hand prints of plaster of paris.

The Christmas tree was decorated by the children with ornaments they had made. Mrs. Marilyn Zwyer and Miss Cheree George assisted Mrs. George with the party and program attended by over 100 guests and students.

Children and adults sang "Silent Night" accompanied at the piano by Jim Salyers, who played for all the program music.

The children sang "God Bless America," "Santa Claus Is Coming To Town," "Away In A Manger," "Jolly Old St. Nicholas," "Up On The Housetop," "Jingle Bells," "Rudolph The Red Nosed Reindeer" and "We Wish You A Merry Christmas."

Singing were: Heather Blecha, Laura Eck, Tony Ritter, Jennifer Hall, Philip Plum, Brent Fetherolf, Lisa

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Man Loves His Work

DEAR ABBY: My home is on the verge of breaking up and there seems little I can do about it. If I leave my husband there will be three teen-aged children without a father, but I see no other solution.

My husband is a professional man with a valuable career. He has admitted to having had sexual relations with a young woman patient 10 years his junior and now he says he's in love with her, but he claims he is also still in love with me. Can this be?

We were married when we were both in college 23 years ago and I still love him. Our sex life has been tremendous, yet he tells me that "in the line of duty" he helped this woman find her "ego identity" by teaching her how to love.

I can't stay married to a man who would have relations with other women in the line of duty or for any other reason.

Is this something new in psychotherapy? I can't believe psychologists really believe this will help their patients. What of their own emotional involvement and that of their families?

DEAR HEARTBROKEN: No professional man in his right mind would have sexual relations with a patient. Your husband needs treatment himself and should not be allowed to continue practicing until he has rehabilitated.

If you love him, don't leave him, but DO insist he see a psychiatrist about his problem. If he continues as he is, he will not only lose his family, but his practice as well.

DEAR ABBY: I finally found one answer to the age old "I never received a 'thank you' for my gift" problem.

A few months ago, the son of a very close relative was married. Prior to the wedding, the bride-to-be had more showers, lunches, and dinners than most young girls. The gifts she received were very lovely-more like wedding gifts.

Many people were invited to the showers and, of course, to the wedding, so many, many gifts were given to this young couple. To date, not one person has received a "thank you" note.

Rather than bother the bride's mother (or mother-in-law) I called up the bride. I figure that if she's old enough to get married, she is old enough to explain why she didn't bother to thank people for their gifts. Also, I wanted to know if mine was received.

Her answer was, "Oh, yes, I got everything, but if I only thank some of the people, the others will get mad."

How would you have responded to that?

E.K. DEAR E.K.: I'd have told her that since she thanked no-body, EVERYBODY was mad!

DEAR ABBY: We are wondering how many married couples are suffering from a social status game people play when two or three couples get together. It goes something like this:

"We have three cars, two boats, and now HE is talking about buying another snowmobile! How do we get all this in a two-car garage?"

Or, "We spent the weekend at the lake cabin with (your favorite friends) and drove over to this place for dinner. Although the tab was $83 for four of us, we weren't impressed with the salad."

Abby, are we out of it? Why do people try to outbrag each other? Is this something new in our affluent society?

MIFFED IN ST. LOUIS PARK

DEAR MIFFED: No. There have always been people who talk about what they have, where they've been, and who they know. The really worthwhile people talk about ideas and issues.

DEAR ABBY: Once you gave a definition for "MATURITY" before a high school audience in St. Louis six years ago. What was it?

LOREN D. DEAR LOREN: To be able to stick with a job until it's finished, to do one's job without being supervised, to be able to carry money without spending it, and be able to bear an injustice without wanting to get even.

Protestants Dominate Congress

NEW YORK (AP) — Methodists, Presbyterians and Episcopalians make up the lion's share of the new Congress which convenes Jan. 3, the proportion of them exceeding their part of the population. Roman Catholics and Baptists in Congress just about match their percentage of the citizenry. But Lutherans fall short of doing so.

These are among factors apparent in a breakdown of religious affiliations of new members of the Senate and House.

Another aspect that shows up is that while most Protestants in Congress tend to be closely divided between Democrats and Republicans, most Lutheran representatives are Republicans and most Baptists are Democrats. So are most Jews and Roman Catholics.

interdenominational fortnightly, Christianity Today.

They show that 115 Roman Catholics in the two houses make up the biggest contingent of any one denomination. But Protestants of various denominations collectively hold far more seats — about 400. More than half of them — 228 — are Methodists, Presbyterians or Episcopalians.

Although the country's 3.4 million Episcopalians are only a tiny segment of the population — less than 2 per cent — 66 of them hold about 13 per cent of the seats in the House and Senate. Similarly, the 84 Methodists and 78 Presbyterians in the two houses occupy a somewhat larger proportion of Congress than their part of the population, although less strikingly so than for the Episcopalians.

Of the vast body of Baptists in the country, more than 20 million of them, 55 hold seats in Congress, all but 16 of them Democrats. Most Jews in Congress — 11 out of 14 — also are Democrats, as are a majority of Roman Catholics, 84 of 115. All four Eastern Orthodox members of Congress are Democrats.

However, with the exception of Baptists (mostly Democrats) and Lutherans (mostly Republicans), other Protestants in Congress generally are closely divided between the two parties, despite slight edges one way or the other.

Totals of seats held by members of the various denominations include:

Roman Catholic, 115; Methodist, 84; Presbyterian, 78; Episcopal, 66; Baptist, 55; United Church, 27; Lutheran, 16; Jewish, 14; Latter-day Saints, 10; Christian Church (Disciples), 9; Unitarian-Universalist, 9; Churches of Christ, 7; Christian Science, 5; Eastern Orthodox, 4; Society of Friends, 4; Evangelical Free Church, 2, and eight other small denominations, one each.

Nineteen members of Congress

listed themselves simply as "Protestant" without specifying any denomination. Four others simply listed "none" regarding religious affiliation.

They show that 115 Roman Catholics in the two houses make up the biggest contingent of any one denomination. But Protestants of various denominations collectively hold far more seats — about 400. More than half of them — 228 — are Methodists, Presbyterians or Episcopalians.

Although the country's 3.4 million Episcopalians are only a tiny segment of the population — less than 2 per cent — 66 of them hold about 13 per cent of the seats in the House and Senate. Similarly, the 84 Methodists and 78 Presbyterians in the two houses occupy a somewhat larger proportion of Congress than their part of the population, although less strikingly so than for the Episcopalians.

Of the vast body of Baptists in the country, more than 20 million of them, 55 hold seats in Congress, all but 16 of them Democrats. Most Jews in Congress — 11 out of 14 — also are Democrats, as are a majority of Roman Catholics, 84 of 115. All four Eastern Orthodox members of Congress are Democrats.

However, with the exception of Baptists (mostly Democrats) and Lutherans (mostly Republicans), other Protestants in Congress generally are closely divided between the two parties, despite slight edges one way or the other.

Totals of seats held by members of the various denominations include:

Roman Catholic, 115; Methodist, 84; Presbyterian, 78; Episcopal, 66; Baptist, 55; United Church, 27; Lutheran, 16; Jewish, 14; Latter-day Saints, 10; Christian Church (Disciples), 9; Unitarian-Universalist, 9; Churches of Christ, 7; Christian Science, 5; Eastern Orthodox, 4; Society of Friends, 4; Evangelical Free Church, 2, and eight other small denominations, one each.

Nineteen members of Congress

listed themselves simply as "Protestant" without specifying any denomination. Four others simply listed "none" regarding religious affiliation.

Lead-Free Gasoline Must Be Available By Mid-1974

WASHINGTON (AP) — Leadfree gasoline must be available at most gas stations by mid-1974, but requirements for reduction of lead in all grades of gasoline have been delayed.

The regulations for lead-free gasoline were announced Wednesday by the Environmental Protection Agency. It directed that major gas stations must offer at least one grade of gasoline of 91 octane or better that is virtually lead-free by July 1, 1974.

The limit for lead content is 0.05 grams per gallon, the EPA said. The gasoline is also to be virtually phosphorus-free, with a maximum 0.005 grams of phosphorus per gallon.

As originally proposed by the EPA in February, there was also to be a phased reduction in lead content of other gasolines by Jan. 1, 1974.

But EPA Administrator William D. Ruckelshaus said the proposed starting date has been postponed one year to Jan. 1, 1975. He said additional consideration must be given to new studies of the effects on health of lead emitted from automobiles.

After Ruckelshaus' announcement, a group called the Urban Environment Conference asked the U.S. Court of Appeals in Washington to review the EPA action.

A spokesman said the purpose is to force EPA to determine quickly whether airborne lead is a significant health hazard and, if it is, to issue the necessary phaseout regulations.

Ruckelshaus said the studies found that "considerable numbers of urban residents have abnormally elevated blood lead levels resulting from excessive exposure to environmental lead principally through food, water, paint and dust."

They also decided that "motor vehicles using leaded gasoline account for over 90 per cent of the lead emitted into the atmosphere."

SHOULD AULD ACQUAINTANCE BE FORGOT

Was friendship born in Scotland?

Slowly and tenderly

1. Should auld acquaintance be forgot, And
2. We twa hae paid-eit in the burn Frae

No! But it took the Scots to remind the world how friendship reaches across the passing years. As the ball of light falls over Times Square once again millions of hearts will stir to the familiar strains of Auld Lang Syne.

Other precious values reach across the passing years. One of them is faith. At its simplest it is man's awareness of friendship with God. At its noblest it is man's confidence that time will unfold new experiences of God's affection for us.

Something else reaches across the passing years. It is worship. Its moods and forms may gradually change . . . from the cathedral chant of the middle ages, to the simplicity of the cottage prayer-meeting—even to the rhythmic beat of so-called contemporary services. But worship itself does not change. In whatever mood or form, man expresses his devotion to his Lord.

And whatever may have been your spiritual tempo, the New Year in the churches of our community offers new incentives, deepening opportunities, in faith and worship.

Mountain Soldiers Die In Avalanche

NICE, France (AP) — Two French mountain soldiers were killed today and five seriously injured in an avalanche on an Alpine slope, authorities reported.

Fifteen soldiers were caught by the snow slide near the village of Isola. Eight managed to struggle free and five were pulled out by rescuers.

The avalanche was believed to have been caused by the relatively mild weather in the southern French Alps. The soldiers were on a patrol exercise when the avalanche occurred.

Gilligan Seeks Propane Gas Flow

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Governor John Gilligan planned to telegram President Nixon urging the President to use his influence to free river barges to supply Ohio propane gas, a spokesman for Gilligan said.

Henry Eckhart, chairman of the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio said companies in Texas own huge river barges that could ship gas up the Mississippi and Ohio Rivers. The barges could supply the state with as much as 4 million gallons of propane.

The Texas companies, however, have other priorities and refuse to send the barges to Ohio, according to Eckhart. He said Gilligan will ask Nixon to persuade the companies to make the barges available.

Ohio needs propane for use by farmers and for home heating in rural areas. The farmers need the gas to dry corn and soybeans that were drenched by heavy fall rains.

Columbus Gas of Ohio, Inc., announced Thursday, that some of Ohio's largest industries will be among 538 industrial gas customers receiving a 10 per cent cut in gas allocations at the beginning of the year.

Major Ohio Banks Raise Interest Rate

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Following a national trend started by New York banks last week, major Ohio banks reported Thursday they are raising or considering raising prime interest rates to 6 per cent.

Prime rate is the interest a bank charges its largest and most credit worthy customers.

Huntington and Ohio National Bank of Columbus, and Cleveland Trust Co., Cleveland's largest bank, have said they are raising prime interest rates to the 6 per cent mark. For some banks the increase will amount to 1 per cent. It will be less for others.

Officials at major Cincinnati banks, including Central Trust Co., and First National, said they are studying the increase, but have made no decision on a boost.

City National Bank of Columbus Board Chairman John McCoy, said his bank's best rate would be increased by .25 per cent starting Wednesday.

Frank Kelly, president of the Ohio State Bank said management there was considering an adjustment. He added that his bank does not follow prime interest trends and that the bank's prime interest is now 6.25 per cent.

The increase in the prime lending rates began Friday in New York and spread to West Coast banks early this week.

WESTERN AUTO

The purpose of the industrial gas reduction is to make sure there is sufficient gas for residential customers during peak winter months.

A company spokesman said no hospitals or public service institutions will be affected by the cutback, scheduled for the first three months of the year.

Marvin White, the company's senior vice president said the early part of the heating season has been much colder than normal, causing residential and commercial consumers to use more gas than expected.

OHIO WEATHER SUMMARY
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Following is the Ohio weather summary from the National Weather Service:

Mild, rainy weather appears to be on tap for the Buckeye State over the New Year's Day weekend.

A blanket of clouds covered the entire state overnight and kept temperatures in the 30s.

A winter storm centered in the Great Plains is forecast to move toward the Great Lakes today and Saturday. Rain was expected to move into western Ohio late today and continue over the entire state tonight. Some snow is possible near the Michigan border, but that also is expected to change to rain.

Temperatures tonight will be in the 30s and 40s.

Southerly winds will push highs into the upper 40s and 50s Saturday, and the rain will continue, especially in northern and eastern counties.

He said large volume gas users, who consume 40 per cent of Columbia's gas, are being asked to reduce their volume. According to White, gas delivered to large industrial users is under special contract that permits curtailment of supplies to protect residential consumers.

Eckhart said gas companies have been reluctant to release propane gas supplies for fear of home heating shortages.

He said gas companies probably would be willing to release the gas to farmers for drying of crops if they knew they would be resupplied by gas being shipped up the rivers to Ohio.

Gas companies in the state have already agreed to release 1.5 million gallons of propane for crop drying and promised more as their reserves are replenished from sources out of state, the primary source being Texas.

Wet weather has prevented farmers from harvesting many of their grain fields. Eckhart said it would take two weeks or less to ship the propane to Ohio.

Man Vies For Title 'Most-Robbed'

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Thomas J. Carraway may have thought his fighting was over after a bullet shattered his arm in World War I. But, more than 50 years later, the 77-year-old former Marine faces violence with surprising frequency.

Carraway, owner and operator of a coin laundry, is recuperating from a bullet wound in his right shoulder and head wounds inflicted Christmas Day by two thieves who took about $40 from the laundry.

During the past four years, Carraway has been pistolwhipped, slugged, shot and robbed a half-dozen times. Last July and again in September, he was held up on the street near his business, receiving broken ribs and other injuries. In March 1968 he suffered nose and arm injuries while resisting a holdup in the laundry.

Thieves have stolen three of his cars, gone through his former apartment, broken windows of his cars to steal cash and broken into his office twice.

"They take my pistols about as fast as I can buy them," Carraway said, "Sometimes I think I should give in to robbers, but I'm not made that way."

"Maybe it's my Marine training, or maybe it's because I come from a long line of fighters. My father was a fighter, and both of my grandfathers were in the Civil War," he added.

International Harvest of Springfield, Empire Detroit Steel of Mansfield, U.S. Gypsum in Genoa, and National Tube Division of U.S. Steel in Lorain are among the industrial users who will receive the gas allocation reductions.

14 Firemen To Lose Jobs

RICHMOND, Ind. (AP)—Fourteen firemen will be dismissed from the Richmond Fire Department Dec. 31 in a reorganization plan aimed at trimming expenses.

The Richmond Board of Public Works Thursday approved discharge of the firemen after Wayne Circuit Court Judge James Puckett ruled that the city has the right to determine the number of firemen it should have, and eliminate employees if necessary for economic reasons.

The board set 72 as the maximum number of firemen for the city, which currently has 86. The last 14 firemen hired will be discharged. All 14 have less than three years service.

The local Firefighters Association had asked the court for an order to keep the city from reducing its 1973 budget and letting the firemen go.

Also included in the reorganization is the closing of one fire house, and eliminating the rank of assistant fire chief.

Braves, Aces Gain Finals In Tournament

By BILL McGAFFNEY
Herald Sports Editor

It will be Logan Elm and Amanda-Clearcreek in the finals of the Holiday Tournament tonight as the result of opening round action Thursday night at Spangler Memorial gym.

Amanda-Clearcreek held off a strong rally by Zane Trace as the Aces nipped the Braves, 65-63, in a real thriller in the opening contest and Logan Elm stopped Westfall, 78-63, in the nightcap to gain berths in the championship round.

Zane Trace and Westfall will meet 6:30 p.m. tonight in the consolation game with the Braves and Aces going against each other in the title tilt at 8 p.m.

The crowd, which jammed the Spangler Memorial gym, saw some thrilling basketball displayed and tonight's contests promise more of the same.

It appeared to be the Aces night in the opening tilt as they led Zane Trace 22-16 at the end of the first quarter and built up a 45-27 edge at halftime.

But the Braves began to make their move in the third canto as they hooped 16 points while holding the Aces to seven counters and the third frame ended with Amanda-Clearcreek holding a 52-43 margin.

Virgil Strickler, Jeff Palmer, Rex Riddle and Bob Foster were the point getters for the Aces in the first two periods with some fine shooting from the floor and the foul line.

But Zane Trace, who had committed 20 turnovers in the first half, settled down and went after the Aces with a vengeance. Doug Strawser, with some fine drives and good play under the bucket, Tim Whitten, Ken Walls and Barry DeLong started to hit the nets and cut the Aces lead in the third frame.

Strawser and DeLong each hit a quick bucket as the final period got underway to cut the lead to 52-47 before Palmer connected from the corner for the Aces. Strawser tallied on a drive and a pair of charity tosses and Strickler countered with a pair of free throws for the Aces to run the count to 56-52 with five minutes left in the contest.

Zane Trace suffered a setback at this point when Whitten drew his fifth foul and went to the bench. Mason netted a foul shot for the Aces but DeLong and Strawser both converted a pair of foul shots for the Braves and the Aces lead was cut to 57-56 with 4:04 left in the game.

A bucket by Riddle gave the Aces a three point margin but DeLong hit on a driving layup to hold the count at 59-58 with 3:03 to go. DeLong drew his fifth foul on the play and was through for the night.

A shot by Strickler upped the lead to 61-58 but the Aces were hurt when Glendenning committed his fifth foul and went to the bench with 2:13 on the clock. Strawser converted two foul shots and Walls hit on a drive to put the Braves on top 62-61 with 1:45 left in the game.

Riddle swished the nets from the lane for the Aces but Strawser once again netted a foul shot to knot the count at 63-63 with 1:11 still on the clock. Strickler was once again the big man for the Aces as he tallied on a fine drive to give the Aces a 65-63 lead with 0:55 still remaining. Neither team scored again but a last second shot from far out by Strawser hit the front of the rim and fell off as the buzzer sounded.

Strickler tallied 10 from the floor and nine from the charity stripe to lead the Aces with 29 points. Riddle added 16 points, Palmer had 13, Foster four and Bob Mason netted three.

Strawser was the leader for the Braves with eight from the field and seven from the foul line for 23 points. DeLong added 20, Whitten hooped 10, Walls eight and Dan Colopy two.

The Aces pulled down 29 rebounds while the Braves grabbed 26 misses. Turnovers played a big part in the contest with Amanda-Clearcreek having 30 and the Braves 28.

Amanda-Clearcreek tallied 21 of 49 from the floor and 23 of 33 from the charity stripe. Zane Trace shot 26 of 54 from the field and converted 11 of 20 from the free throw line.

Logan Elm gained a berth in the finals with a convincing 78-63 over the Mustangs of Westfall in the second contest Thursday night.

It was an even battle midway through the first period with the score tied 8-8 with 2:50 left in the canto. But Tim Justice and Tom Sykes began to find the range and the Braves held a 17-12 edge at the end of the frame. Dave Shannon and Mike Peterson were the big point getters for the Mustangs in the period.

Steve Sargent held the hot hand for the Braves as he hit six of six in the second frame and led them to a 43-25 edge at halftime. It was Joe Angles and Marc Easterday putting points on the board for Westfall in the second canto.

The Mustangs cut the gap to 53-39 at the conclusion of the third quarter with Angles, Easterday and Shannon hitting for the Mustangs. Sykes, Sargent, Justice and Fullen were basket getters for the Braves in the stanza.

Sykes hit three buckets and a pair of fouls to counter a bucket by Greg McKay and two foul shots by Shannon and the Braves led by 18 points with 6:33 left in the contest. At this point Westfall lost Shannon on fouls and Mike Holbrook of Logan Elm drew his fifth foul and was lost for the night.

The Braves lost Peterson on fouls with 5:10 still on the clock and both teams went to their bench for the remainder of the game. Westfall cut the lead to 12 points but the Braves answered the challenge to come away with a 78-63 victory and set up tonight's championship tilt.

Sykes displayed a fine shooting touch as he led Logan Elm with 10 from the floor and eight from the charity stripe for 28 points. Tim Justice, the other half of the deadly duo, tallied 15, Sargent added 19, with nine of 12 from the field, Stu Jones had four, Terry Crumley three, Doug Marshall, Jay Justice, Brad Luckhart and Marty Fullen each had two and Mike Holbrook tallied one for the winners.

Angles paced the Mustangs with 15 markers, Shannon added 12, Peterson 10, Easterday nine, Chuck Graffis seven, McKay five, Jay Clark four and Steve Johnson one.

The Braves shot 30 of 74 from the field and converted 18 of 32 at the foul line while the Mustangs tallied 22 of 56 from the field and added 19 of 36 from the charity stripe.

Westfall pulled down 45 rebounds to 38 for the Braves. Easterday had nine for Westfall and Tim Justice grabbed eight for the Braves. The Mustangs committed 30 turnovers while the Braves misplayed the ball 16 times.

Once again its time for the old man with the scythe to gather up his belongings and move along as the lively little kid with the droopy diaper waits in the wings with a satchel full of faith and hope for all good things to come in the next 12 months.

It's been a good year — some people may want to argue the point — but being an eternal optimist — we feel that any time you're around for the whistle blowing and bell ringing heralding the arrival of the new year — the old baby couldn't have been too bad.

Sure, there were probably some things that weren't quite up to par and for some reason it seems to be human nature to remember them. But if you check the records of the past 12 months, the good things will probably be in the majority.

What is past is past and now comes time to look forward to all the good things the new year has in store.

We have made our home in Circleville now for a little over five years and can honestly say it just keeps getting better. Jerry, Mrs. Kelly and Old Willie dearly love Pickaway County and have met some of the finest people it has ever been our privilege to be associated with.

The other day someone asked us if we hadn't found anything wrong with the place in five years and we replied, "We haven't looked for anything wrong." Maybe this is the secret to our contentment — Just don't ask for trouble.

Sure, we've stood on the sidelines and got soaking wet at football games — But it's surprising how warm and dry you feel when your kids win.

Well, we wish all of you nothing but the best in the coming year and want to thank each one of you for being so nice to us in the past year. Happy New Year.

Our "fearless" forecast — Tigers will tree the Panthers . . . Vikings will wither the Shamrocks . . . Buckeyes will fall to the charging Trojans . . . Alabama over Texas . . . Nebraska will stop the Irish . . . LSU to beat Tennessee . . . Colorado defeats Auburn . . . It's upset time in the pro ranks with the Steelers and Dallas going to the Super Bowl.

Until next time, have a nice day—be a good sport.

It's tough going for the champion Indiana Pacers in the American Basketball Association these nights.

They suffered their fifth straight loss Thursday night as they fell before the Carolina Cougars 120-106 and dropped three games behind the first place Utah Stars in the ABA West.

The Stars enjoyed a 128-90 romp over the New York Nets as Glen Combs and Willie Wise combined for 50 points. The Virginia Squires beat the Dallas Chaparrals 124-117 in the other ABA game scheduled.

The Cougars, on top in the ABA East, were led by Billy Cunningham's 32 points as they overcame the Pacers for their fifth in a row. George McGinnis was high for the Pacers with 24.

Combs tossed in 26 points and Wise 24 as they led the Stars over the Nets. George Carter, the Nets' leading scorer, was ejected in the first quarter after two technical fouls were called against him. "They obviously missed Carter," said LaDell Andersen

College Bowl Games Here

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A wild weekend of bowling—football style—gets underway tonight with two post-season college classics.

The Peach Bowl at Atlanta, Ga., matches 18th-ranked West Virginia against North Carolina State. Meanwhile, at the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Fla., Kent State faces Tampa.

There are four games Saturday, including the East-West Shrine Game at San Francisco. North Carolina, ranked No. 16, plays Texas Tech in the Sun Bowl at El Paso, Tex. In the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla., No. 6 Auburn goes up against Colorado, ranked 13th, and the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl at Houston has No. 11 Tennessee facing No. 10 Louisiana State.

The weekend winds up with the Big Four bowls—the best-known of the post-season action. That starts Sunday night with second-ranked Oklahoma meeting No. 5 Penn State in the New Year's Eve Sugar Bowl game at New Orleans. On New Year's Day, Monday, the Cotton Bowl at Dallas matches No. 4 Alabama and seventh-rated Texas, while top-ranked Southern California collides with No. 3 Ohio State in the Rose Bowl at Pasadena, Calif., and Nebraska, No. 9, meets No. 12 Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl at Miami, Fla.

Defense was the item that most concerned the four coaches as they completed preparations for tonight's two games.

"Whoever does the best job of stopping the other will be the winner," said Lou Holtz, coach of North Carolina State, as the Wolfpack, 7-3-1, readied to meet West Virginia in the Peach Bowl.

Both teams compiled impressive offensive records during the regular season with West Virginia slightly ahead statiscally. The Mountaineers, 8-3, averaged 36.5 points per game and gained an average of 411 yards with quarterback Bruce Shaw and running back Stan Fritts, were nursing injuries and were listed as doubtful starters. Shaw passed for 1,708 yards and nine touchdowns while Fritts ran for 689 yards and 17 TDs.

North Carolina State averaged 432 yards and 32.7 points per game but two of the Wolfpack's key performers, quarterback Bruce Shaw and running back Stan Fritts, were nursing injuries and were listed as doubtful starters. Shaw passed for 1,708 yards and nine touchdowns while Fritts ran for 689 yards and 17 TDs.

Don James, Kent State's coach, figured his 6-4-1 team would need a superior effort to knock off 9-2 Tampa in the Tangerine Bowl. "Flawless football," was what James thought Kent State would require.

Texas Tech, readying for Saturday's

Sun Bowl clash with 16th ranked North Carolina, figures there will be some heavy hitting in that encounter.

Tech, unranked in the last Associated Press poll, could crack the Top Twenty by knocking off the Tar Heels. Another game that should have a direct bearing on the rankings is the Astro-Bluebonnet showdown Saturday night. Tennessee, ranked 11th with a 9-2 record going in, faces the team directly ahead of it in the poll, No. 10 Louisiana State with a 9-1-1 season log.

Wayne Simpson Says Reds Team Management 'Unfair'

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Pitcher Wayne Simpson, sent from Cincinnati to Kansas City in a winter trade, is stoking up baseball's hot-stove league by labeling management of his former team "unfair."

"They were unfair to me and never were truthful," the 24-year-old righthander said about the Reds.

Speaking from Ponce, P.R., in a telephone interview Thursday, Simpson declined to say whether his comments were directed at Reds Manager Sparky Anderson or General Manager Robert Howsam.

"They'd tell me that I'd pitch on certain days, then those days would come around and I wouldn't be pitching," he said. "That has to upset a person."

Simpson, dealt to the Royals with outfielder Hal McRae for pitcher Roger Nelson and outfielder Richie Scheinblum, posted a 13-1 mark in his rookie year in 1971 before running into arm trouble.

He finished the season 14-3, and dropped to 4-7 in 1971 as arm trouble continued to hamper him. He posted key victories for the Reds in 1972, wound up with an 8-5 record and 4.15 earned run average.

He saw no action at all in the World Series.

"After the World Series, I was steaming," he said. "It was building up for some time. I mean they promised me that I'd pitch in the series and I didn't. It was evident I didn't fit into their plans and I asked them to trade me."

One thing he said irked him was that after he would pitch a bad game, he would have to "sit around for two weeks without pitching. They wouldn't send me back out there."

Simpson says he's been throwing "real good" for Ponce and has a 5-2 record.

He called the trade Dec. 1 "the first good news I've gotten in 2½ years. This trade should give me a fresh start. I'm just happy that what happened in Cincinnati is behind me."

Hayes Claims He's Tougher And Team Members Like It

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — There have been reports that Woody Hayes has mellowed, but the master of Ohio State's football team will have none of that.

"Am I tougher?" Hayes said, repeating a question asked at a Thursday news conference. He replied: "Yes, sir, and you know who likes it best? They do."

He meant, of course, his third-ranked, once-beaten Buckeyes, who are 14-point underdogs against the top-rated, unbeaten Southern California Trojans in Monday's Rose Bowl game.

"I don't give a damn what you fellows write," he told the assembled reporters when asked to comment on a local newspaper story which quoted one of his players anonymously as saying he was critical of Hayes' rigid regulations.

"We're sticking closer to the book this time," said Hayes. The last time Ohio State was in the Rose Bowl, Jan. 1, 1971, "we were favorites...fat and happy."

Stanford upset the Buckeyes 27-17. Hayes said he wants his Buckeyes to be angry.

"Are they all happy? I hope not. I've never seen a happy team worth a lot.

I've never yet seen a man who could make a good tackle with a smile on his face."

Hayes, asked if he could remember the last time Ohio State was a 14-point underdog, said, "Yeah, we were 14-point underdogs against Alan Amecher (Wisconsin) in 1952 and we won."

"There are certain advantages to being an underdog. If you've got the right players. Actually, when you go back into history, every great victory is achieved by the underdog."

Baltimore Edges Hawks; Logan Elm, A-C Wins 112-111

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Baltimore's first place position in the National Basketball Association's Central Division balanced precariously on the rim of the basket twice in the final moments of the Bullets' game against second place Atlanta Thursday night.

Both times, the ball fell without going through the hoop and Baltimore hung on for a 112-111 victory over the second place Hawks to move 1½ games ahead of Atlanta.

Elsewhere in the NBA Thursday, New York walloped Buffalo 107-86, Milwaukee slugged Detroit 115-91 and Golden State ripped Cleveland 118-105.

The Hawks pulled to within one point of the Bullets at 110-109 with 18 seconds left on a basket by Lou Hudson, who had 26 points. Then Pete Maravich stole the ball for Atlanta.

First Maravich and then Hudson both missed short jump shots that would have put Atlanta ahead. Baltimore finally grabbed a rebound and Phil Chenier dropped in a layup with four seconds left for the deciding points.

Mike Riordan led the Bullets with 26 points while Chenier, Wes Unseld and Flynn Robinson added 20 apiece. Herm Gilliam had 23 and Maravich 19 for the Hawks.

Logan Elm, A-C In Reserve Finals

The reserve tournament played Thursday afternoon had Logan Elm and Amanda easily winning over Westfall and Zane Trace respectively.

The Little Aces handled the Zane Trace squad downing them 40-29.

Doug Starner was the top scorer for Amanda netting 11 followed by Rod Brobst at 10 and Tom Hinton with seven. The top scorers for Zane Trace were Roger Lyons with 10 and Rix Parsons hitting six.

Logan Elm won over Westfall 50-31 in the second tournament game of the afternoon.

Scott Pontious scored 14 for Logan Elm and Mitch Martin put through 13. Mitch Martin pulled down 10 rebounds, Joe Stump collected nine balls off the board and Brian Barr and Pontious each had seven.

Scoring for Westfall were Coleman with 10 and Picklesimer at nine.

The reserve tournament will resume at 1:00 p.m. today with Westfall and Zane Trace playing followed by the championship game between Logan Elm and Amanda.

Cleveland Barons Plan Florida Move

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Cleveland Barons owner Nick Mileti has asked the American Hockey League to let him move the team temporarily to Jacksonville, Fla., and reports are that the move will be approved.

The Barons have suffered from lagging attendance since Mileti launched his World Hockey Association team, the Crusaders, this year. With paid attendance averaging only 523, Mileti asked the AHL board of governors earlier this season to okay a move to Lewiston, Maine, but the AHL turned him down.

College Bowl Games Here

A wild weekend of bowling—football style—gets underway tonight with two post-season college classics.

The Peach Bowl at Atlanta, Ga., matches 18th-ranked West Virginia against North Carolina State. Meanwhile, at the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Fla., Kent State faces Tampa.

There are four games Saturday, including the East-West Shrine Game at San Francisco. North Carolina, ranked No. 16, plays Texas Tech in the Sun Bowl at El Paso, Tex. In the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla., No. 6 Auburn goes up against Colorado, ranked 13th, and the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl at Houston has No. 11 Tennessee facing No. 10 Louisiana State.

The weekend winds up with the Big Four bowls—the best-known of the post-season action. That starts Sunday night with second-ranked Oklahoma meeting No. 5 Penn State in the New Year's Eve Sugar Bowl game at New Orleans. On New Year's Day, Monday, the Cotton Bowl at Dallas matches No. 4 Alabama and seventh-rated Texas, while top-ranked Southern California collides with No. 3 Ohio State in the Rose Bowl at Pasadena, Calif., and Nebraska, No. 9, meets No. 12 Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl at Miami, Fla.

Defense was the item that most concerned the four coaches as they completed preparations for tonight's two games.

"Whoever does the best job of stopping the other will be the winner," said Lou Holtz, coach of North Carolina State, as the Wolfpack, 7-3-1, readied to meet West Virginia in the Peach Bowl.

Both teams compiled impressive offensive records during the regular season with West Virginia slightly ahead statistically. The Mountaineers, 8-3, averaged 36.5 points per game and gained an average of 411 yards with quarterback Bernie Galiffa at the controls. Galiffa passed for 16 touchdowns and 2,312 yards during the regular season and ranked fifth in the nation in total offense with 227.8 yards per game.

North Carolina State averaged 432 yards and 32.7 points per game but two of the Wolfpack's key performers, quarterback Bruce Shaw and running back Stan Fritts, were nursing injuries and were listed as doubtful starters. Shaw passed for 1,708 yards and nine touchdowns while Fritts ran for 689 yards and 17 TDs.

Don James, Kent State's coach, figured his 6-4-1 team would need a superior effort to knock off 9-2 Tampa in the Tangerine Bowl. "Flawless football," was what James thought Kent State would require.

Another game that should have a direct bearing on the rankings is the Astro-Bluebonnet showdown Saturday night. Tennessee, ranked 11th with a 9-2 record going in, faces the team directly ahead of it in the poll, No. 10 Louisiana State with a 9-1-1 season log.

Merit Plan For Judges Proposed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State Bar Association President Rudolph Janata said the bar will lobby in the 110th General Assembly for a constitutional amendment allowing merit appointments of Ohio Supreme Court and appellate judges.

After making the bar's plans known Thursday, Janata said under the merit plan, sitting judges would undergo a "voter test" every six years. If a judge did not receive a majority favorable vote, the governor would name a replacement.

The so-called "Missouri Plan," which allows judges to sit until voted out by referendum, was rejected by the legislature as part of a judicial reform package in 1970.

Under the merit plan all appointments would be made by the governor from a list recommended by a Judicial Nomination Commission. Half the commission would be attorneys, and both major political parties would have equal representation.

Janata claims that the merit system will result in better qualified judges in the state. "Frankly, it would just give 'tenure' to good judges. . . and would greatly increase the incentive of good attorneys to seek judicial posts," he said.

According to Janata, the proposal would not affect the jobs of judges who are already serving.

Cleveland Barons Plan Florida Move

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Cleveland Barons owner Nick Mileti has asked the American Hockey League to let him move the team temporarily to Jacksonville, Fla., and reports are that the move will be approved.

The Barons have suffered from lagging attendance since Mileti launched his World Hockey Association team, the Crusaders, this year. With paid attendance averaging only 523, Mileti asked the AHL board of governors earlier this season to okay a move to Lewiston, Maine, but the AHL turned him down.

A winter supply of firewood

No sweat with a HOMELITE SUPER E-Z™ Automatic Chain Saw.

Just push one button to set and hold the controls in starting position without the chain turning.

You cut with ease. Homelite's excellent balance, thick rubber coated handle bar and pistol grip, plus Softone™ muffler makes the Super E-Z fun to use. Automatic bar and chain oiling, too.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our mother and grandmother, Sarah Reed Gilmore who passed away Dec. 28, 1967.
Her unselfish devotion, her untiring toil
For God's creature children, flowers and soil.
Made life pleasant for others a joy deight.
Like a sunbeam from Heaven a bright shining light, God called her and said, "Here give me your hand."
I will lead you my darling to a far better land where Jesus is waiting with arms open wide with compassion and love, you will dwell by his side.
Your lifes work is done, you earned a long rest.
All suffering is behind you, my Dear,
that is best.
Her departure was a sudden shock to us all, but she heard and answered our sweet Saviours call. Life voyage is fleeing, and with God's help at hand, we will meet you dear mom, in Sweet promised land.
Sadly missed by grandchildren, daughter and 2 sons.
Fairly Gulick, Gloria Thorne,
Della Seymour, Mae Stant,
John Reed, Harold Kead.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our mother and grandmother, Sarah Reed Gilmore who passed away Dec. 28, 1967.
Her unselfish devotion, her untiring toil.
For God's creature children, flowers and soil.
Made life pleasant for others a joy and delight.
Like a sunbeam from Heaven a bright shining light.
God called her and said, "Here give up your hand."
I will lead you my darling to a far better land where Jesus is waiting with arms open wide with compassion and love, you will dwell by his side.
Your lifes work is done, you earned a long rest.
All suffering is behind you, my Dear, that is best.
Her departure was a sudden shock to us all, but she heard and answered our sweet Saviours call. Life voyage is fleeting, and with God's help at hand, we will meet you dear mom, in Sweet promised land.
Sadly missed by grandchildren, daughter and 2 sons.
Fairly Guick, Gloria Thorne, Della Seymour, Mae Stant, John Reed, Harold Keck.

Views On TV And Radio

Besides a huge assortment of college bowl and professional football games on tap New Years' weekend, the three major networks and PBS' channel 34 have planned a wealth of TV specials to end a spectacular holiday schedule.

Complementing the gridiron action will be three bowl parades and a pre-parade broadcast. NBC will present the Orange Bowl parade 8 p.m. Saturday and a New Years' parade salute 10 a.m. Monday.

CBS has scheduled a Rose Parade preview 10 a.m. Monday, the Cotton Bowl parade 10:30 a.m. Monday and the Tournament of Roses parade 11:30 a.m. Monday. In addition, NBC will broadcast a special, "On the Way to the Roses," 1:45 p.m. Monday, and a recap of Ohio State's national championship bid 10 p.m. Wednesday.

Festive New Years'-Evers, who don't want to watch the football game, can tune in on Lawrence Welk's party 11:30 p.m. Sunday on NBC or Guy Lombardo's traditional affair 11:30 p.m. Sunday on CBS.

To ring out the old year news-wise, ABC will present three specials - "Year-End Special" 11:30 p.m. Wednesday, "That Was the Year That Was" 11:30 p.m. Thursday and "This Is The Year that Will Be" 11:30 p.m. Friday.

Wednesday's show will deal with "hard news" and will be hosted by Howard K. Smith and Harry Reasoner, ABC newscasters.

Jack Burns and Avery Scribeur will host Thursday's telecast, a satirical look at 1972, and will continue with a look at 1973 on Friday's special.

Light variety shows scheduled include Roger Miller's special 11:30 p.m. Monday on ABC, George Carlin's Tuesday night special 11:30 p.m. on ABC, Alan King's Wednesday special same time and place and "A Royal Performance," 8:30 p.m. Wednesday on ABC. COLLISION—A passenger in the pictured auto, Mrs. Elizabeth Blaney, 58, Route 3, is listed in "critical" condition in the surgical intensive care unit at University Hospital, Columbus, as a result of the mishap. Mrs. Blaney was an occupant of the car, driven by her husband, William Blaney, 69, of Route 3, which collided with an auto driven by Sherry A. Campbell, 18, Route 2, Williamsport. The crash occurred 5:18 p.m. Thursday at the junction of W. High St. and Island Road.

According to the report of Sgt. Wes Barton and Ptl. Jack Mills, the Campbell woman was westbound on W. High St. and pulled into the path of the eastbound Blaney vehicle when she attempted to make a left turn onto Island Road. The Campbell woman was treated and released at Berger Hospital for head, hand and knee injuries suffered in the accident. She will be cited by city police for failure to yield the right of way.

Cartoon Characters Liven Wait For Air Passengers

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — An airline passenger, sitting blankfaced and bored between flights, turns suddenly to stare into the smiling face of a tall carrot chomping rabbit towering above him.

"Eh, what's up, doc?" the rabbit asked.

"Look, there's Bugs Bunny!" a little boy nearby yells.

Bugs Bunny, Daffy Duck and Yosemite Sam have just deplaned from a Pacific Southwest Airlines flight. Instantly, the boarding lounge is merry bedlam.

Yosemite Sam holds up a grinning grandmother with his mock cannon. Another youngster tugs at Bugs Bunny's cotton tail.

This is the kind of scene that can be found at San Francisco International Airport almost any day—and which an enterprising young man hopes will soon be a common sight at airports everywhere.

The characters, hired by PSA to entertain its passengers, are the brainchildren of Bob Claus, president of Cartoon Characters, Inc., of San Jose, Calif. He rents his cast of 13 Warner Brothers cartoon characters to airlines, claiming they relieve boredom and nervousness of airport waits and "unwrap people from all their problems."

"Isn't it beautiful?" Claus asked, surveying the pandemonium in the lounge. "Happiness is dying at a very rapid pace. We want to get people smiling again."

Claus, 26, also said he is happy with the in-flight antics of the cartoon characters.

He said he struck upon the idea while sitting depressed one day at the San Jose Airport, wondering why nobody smiled.

Since their first PSA flight Dec. 15, Claus said the comic figures have logged more than 20,000 miles.

The characters are played by unemployed actors, actresses, drama students and just plain hams.

"We're all crazy," said Cathy McIntosh, 22, an ex-television model who plays Daffy Duck. "It's so much fun to light up grumpy faces."

Claus, a former airport baggage handler, said he sold the idea to PSA by sending a man dressed as Bugs Bunny to the airline's executive offices.

PSA President J. Boyd Andrews "didn't believe it at first," Claus said, "but he signed a one-month contract with an option to renew."

Dwane Wittmayer, PSA vice president of sales, said the cartoon characters are in keeping with the airline's motto of "putting the fun back into flying." PSA also dresses its stewardesses in miniskirts and has conducted various inflight contests for passengers, awarding free dinners and vacations as prizes.

Relief Funds Distributed

Audit of the State Joseph T. Ferguson said today that a total of $7,992,293.13 in general relief subsidies has been distributed in December to Ohio's 88 counties.

The general relief subsidy is a state financed program to give counties support for their local welfare programs. The money is in addition to the programs financed by federal funds, such as aid for dependent children, aid for the blind and aid for the aged.

The size of distribution ranged from $4,885.34 for Ashland County to $1,996,445.67 for Cuyahoga County. Pickaway County received $14,189.34.
